WIDOW IS ENTITLED TO HER SHARE

Supreme Court Reverses the Action of the Lower Court in the Case of Martha Pugsley.

IN AN opinion handed down in the Supreme court yesterday it is held that a widow is entitled, notwithstanding the provisions of her husband's will, to a family allowance in the savings of a life time which she helped to accumulate. The decision in question is rendered in the case of Martha Pugsley, widow of Philip Pugsley, who died in this city August 7, 1903, leaving an estate of $34,415.81 in personal and $10,000 in real property. The heirs of the deceased consisted of a number of children, his widow, and a plural wife, Clarissa Ames Pugsley. The will provided that the executors pay to the wife, Martha Pugsley, $50, and to the plural wife, Clarissa Pugsley, $40 per month pending the administration of the estate.

The widow filed a petition in the probate division of the District court, asking for a family allowance of $50 per month, and the plural wife and her children protested. The court ordered that she be given $50 in gross and the widow filed another petition asking for $200 per month. The court ordered that the petition be dismissed. From this order of the District court, Martha Pugsley appealed to the Supreme court.

The opinion, written by Justice Barth, reverses the judgment of the lower court with costs, and remands the cause with directions to the court below to set aside the order refusing the family allowance and proceed in accordance with the premises set out by the appellate court. The following extract from the opinion shows a number of points of true sentiment with law and equity.

What the Court Says.

"In this case it appears from the record, the widow is about 75 years old, and all the children and legatees are over the age of maturity, the oldest one being about 31 years old, and there is nothing to show that they are not all able to support themselves. The appraised value of the estate is over $50,000, savings of a lifetime which this aged wife and mother assisted in accumulating, doubtless in the hope of having ample in her old days for her support and maintenance. Under the will, however, this wife of more than half a century found the provision for her so meager that she chose to re-nounce it and rely upon the mercy of the law of inheritance, and as a result received the respondents say, for her portion real estate of the value of $4200, and when, in addition to this paltry sum, the aged wife and mother comes into court and asks for but a reasonable allowance out of her own savings, for her support during administration, what is met with resistance, on legal technicalities without merit, and a refusal. There seems to be nothing in the record to justify this.

"In our judgment, this is a case where the circumstances warrant a liberal allowance for the support of the widow, during the whole time of administration."

The opinion is concurred in by Chief Justice Baskin and Justice McCarthy.

Court Notes.

Persons against whom indictments have been returned in the Federal court were yesterday ordered by Judge Marshall to appear on Saturday, April 24th, to plead to the charges against them, as follows: Francis Farrot and James Edgar, robbery of a sub-station of the Salt Lake postoffice; James Peterson and A. J. Thompson of Ver-nal, selling liquor to Indians; Albert E. Douglas of Ogden, abstracting letters from the mails when employed as a carrier for the Salt Lake postoffice; Rue M. Smith and Jeddiah Grant, passing counterfeit money; Samuel R. Ayson of Salt Lake, sending obscene pictures through the mails.

Minnie H. Adamson, widow of Henry Adamson, who was killed in the Old Jordan mine at Bingham on the 11th inst., and her six minor children brought suit for $3000 damages against the United States Mining company yesterday. The complaint, filed in the District court, alleges that the deceased met his death while employed in one of the stopes in the mine owned and operated by the defendant. The plaintiffs claim that they were dependent upon the husband and father for support, and that his death was caused by negligence on the part of the defendant.

After thirty-six years of married life Johana Hansen yesterday brought suit for divorce against Peter Hansen. The date of the marriage has evidently been forgotten with the lapse of so many years, and the complaint, filed in the District court yesterday, merely states that they were married in the year 1868, in Denmark. The ground on which a decree is asked is failure to provide with the common necessities of life.

Foreclosure proceedings were instituted in the District court yesterday by Oscar E. Lawrence against Hannah A. Young, to recover $41,355 with interest, alleged to be due on a promissory note for $5000 executed by the defendant and her deceased husband, Oscar J. Youngberg.

Contracted Disorders

Be sure your cure is thorough. Not one of our patients has ever had a relapse after being discharged as cured, and we cure in less time than the ordinary course of treatment requires.

Specific Blood Poison.

No dangerous minerals to drive the virus to the interior, but have a least, blood-cleansing remedies, that remove the last poisonous taint.

WEAK MEN

So-called "Weakness" in men is merely a symptom of chronic inflammation in the prostate gland, brought on by early dissipation or by the improper treatment of some contracted disease. A complete and radical cure is, therefore, a question of restoring the prostate gland to its normal state, and this we accomplish promptly and completely without the use of internal remedies. Our treatment is a local one entirely. It is original and scientific, and has been proven absolutely effective by thousands of tests. We are convinced that by no other methods can full and permanent restoration of strength and vigor be accomplished.

VARICOCELS.

Absolutely painless treatment that cures completely. Incurable, if not treated. It is the only thoroughly scientific treatment for this disease being employed.

Spermatorrhea, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Stricture, Piles, Lost Manhood, Hydrocele, Seminal Weakness, etc., are also among the diseases we cure to stay cured.

HOME CURES BY MAIL.

We make a specialty of curing patients by mail. We have cured thousands who have never seen us personally. If you are afflicted and cannot call, write us for advice and free symptom blanks and we will gladly advise you regarding your case, free of charge.
